TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS -
"CHRISTENDOM, LONDON."

Evangelical Alliance.

7. Adam Street, Strand.

London, 14 June 1896.
W.C.

Dear Sir William Dawson,

Many thanks for your kind letter and the M.S. which has duly reached me. I will take care that you have a proof, whether it is published first in Evangelical Christendom or in the volume which we shall bring out in due course. (I note your desire to subscribe for the volume, but of course we should send you a copy in any case.)

It will be a great pleasure to me to see you again, if you are in town, before leaving for Montreal; and especially as, on the last occasion I spoke to you in the Guildmay Hall, I was very hurried and did not stay to read the contents of the note you handed to me, till afterwards. I see you paid the cost of lodging etc, but this we did not intend; and it was quite a mistake of the landlady's to give you any bill. Our Council would be very sorry to know that you had defrayed this expenditure incurred on our account. I shall be very glad therefore, if you will let me have the bill or name the amount so that I may send you a cheque. It is most kind of you to be willing to meet the cost yourself, but we should like to do this, please.

It was a great privilege to have you with us at the jubilee celebration and to have your valuable help as a speaker.

With kind regards to Lady
Dawson and yourself,

Believe me

Dear Sir William Dawson,

Yours very truly

A. J. Burns
