July 1/96

July 1st 1896.

Dear Sir,

I am extremely obliged by your courteous consideration we greatly regret that we must for the present forego the advantage of a conversation with you, as we shall be unable to take tomorrow afternoon from other official duties. We shall however look forward with interest to the possibility of seeing you when you pass through London in August, if you will be so good as to communicate with us, when the occasion arises.

I have the honor to be

Sir

with best thanks

Yr. faithfully

R. A. Morant.
