Mr. M. J. Dawson
Montreal
dear Sir

Please excuse my present intrusion being uncertain of your present address I will try to find you at Montreal -

The occasion of my writing, is that I have been reading carefully some of your published Books and in connection with the Historic Deluge, may I be pardoned for stating that I have not been satisfied with your scientific statements personally in such matters I may be called on ignoramus, but now when I come across literary productions in such matters as seem to me to be very satisfactory - and permit me to ask if you have read any of a series of articles from the pen of R. Kelso Grant - the third is on the Historic Deluge and appeared in Frank Leslie's Weekly on March 31 1892 - If you cannot readily obtain a copy and if you would like to peruse the article I will gladly forward my copy to you -

When you were last in Boston you kindly asked Mrs James Loring after my welfare -

I regret that the only time that I had the pleasure of meeting you in Massachusetts was at a Bible study class on the Lord's day.

Trusting that you are in the enjoyment of health bodily and spiritual —

I am, with much esteem
Yours respectfully,
Duncan McFarlane
