Dear Sir:-

We have the honor to advise you that we have in course of preparation "A Library of the masterpieces of the most noted modern Scientific writers."

We have entrusted the editing and classification to the following gentlemen, all of whom are probably known to you by reputation at least:

Dr. W. J. Youmans - Ed. Popular Science Monthly.
Dr. Foster - Ed. New York Medical Journal.
Mr. Ripley Hitchcock - Literary Adviser of the Appletons.

HON. CHARLES A. DANA.

The contributors include the most distinguished scholars of the age, including Spencer, Huxley, Darwin, Tyndall, Draper, Young, Maudsley, and others of eminence.

The collection comprises a complete and comprehensive Library of Modern Science, covering the whole field of Evolutionary Philosophy.

It is our desire to popularize this valuable educational Library through the testimonials of representative people.

May we ask, therefore, the privilege of submitting for your consideration a confidential proposition with a view of having your testimonial and endorsement.

If the enterprise meets with your approval, please sign and return attached inquiry.

Yours truly,
