

Ottawa, October, 9th, 1896.

My dear Sir William Dawson:

MS. A. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1.

My wife and I thank you very much for your kind congratulations contained in your letter of the 7th instant. I wish very much that we could have had the pleasure of having you and Lady Dawson with us yesterday. I also desire to thank you for your latest book which I shall read with the care and attention I always give to everything that comes from your gifted pen, and have no doubt I shall find it, as you say, all pure gold.

With many thanks for your prayers and good wishes, and kindest regards to Lady Dawson and yourself,

I remain,

Yours faithfully,

Charles Tupper

Sir William Dawson,
293 University St.
Montreal.

October 3rd, 1896

My dear Sir William Dawson:

My wife and I thank you very much for your kind congratulations contained in your letter of the 7th instant. I wish very much that we could have had the pleasure of having you and Lady Dawson with us yesterday. I also desire to thank you for your latest book which I shall read with the care and attention I always give to everything that comes from your gifted pen, and have no doubt I shall find it, as you say, all pure gold. With many thanks for your prayers and good wishes, and kindest regards to Lady Dawson and yourself,

Wm. Dawson
Oct 11 1896

I remain,

Yours faithfully,

Wm. Dawson

Sir William Dawson,

233 University St.

Montreal.

MCGILL UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES
ACC. NO.	1463
REF.	692