Tiffy
Sept 85

Sir William Dawson

Dear Sir

I take the liberty of sending to you, to ask a favour, and knowing your kindness of heart I feel sure you will forgive my presumption. I am in trouble and difficulty with my landlord and know not what to do. Oh! Sir would you kindly let me have five dollars until the first of the month? I know your sympathy is with the distressed ones and the orphan, my little grandson is without father and mother they having died a few years ago.

Mr. R. B. Ruggs, and Mr.
Clouston have both assisted me. You knew my poor father, the late Doctor

Smallwood, and my husband, the late H. R.
Prennie - If I have asked too much of you, pray forgive me, and pardon
me for troubling you.

I remain
Yours Respectfully
Caroline Prennie
