On "Tuesday" New York
18th March 1897

My dear Mr. Mann

Your kind letter of the 13th has just been handed to me and while the ^{letter} ~~document~~ is being brought up to date I send a line of thanks and expressions of your hearty and affectionate ful attention.

It will be a pleasure to me to be back in London and to meet your self and my other good friends, although my stay on this side the Atlantic will probably be short.

The work to which you refer that of the survey of the tides and currents of the Gulf and River St.

Lawrence and of the Const General Kolkub has been in progress for some three or four years, I quite concerned with you in conducting a most important case and it is somewhat to be hoped nothing may come in the way to interrupt it.
I shall have had to talk the

The matter now rests upon you when opportunity may offer to assist in getting the matter settled if you will kindly permit me to do so.

Looking to the pleasure of seeing you soon and with kind regards for Lady Dawson and yourself
I remain always sincerely yours
Wm. A. R. Smith
I remain, my friend,
with kindest regards,
Wm. A. R. Smith
