

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION. Boston, Mass., 18.5.97.

Dear Sir:

Pray excuse me for not having acknowledged your article earlier, the delay being due to an unusual pressure of work.

Your article is admirable, but it is far too long. I have therefore ventured to make an abridgment of it.

a copy of which I herewith inclose, and I trust you will sanction it. If it meets with your approval please sign it and return it, and we will send the honorary.

Pending your decision, we hold the original ms. and, of course, have not mutilated it.

With many thanks for all the trouble you have
