My dear Sir.

The British Association meets at Toronto on the 18th/_u, and Sir John Evans is to deliver the Presidential Address, which will, I believe, refer at length to present condition of the evidence relating to the Antiquity of Man - I am at present preparing a work on Primitive Man for the Religious Tract Society, and should like to embody in it the remarks of Sir ~~the~~ John Evans.

Could you kindly tell me, if there is any Toronto paper or

Magazine which will print the address Verbatim.

A mere summary would be of no use to me, and the Report of the British Association would not be ready until next year. If you could give the address of any Toronto Newspaper to me, which would give the address in full I should be much

Obliged —

I have just procured M. de Mortillet's last work on the French Nation; so far as Anthropology is concerned he maintains the views set forth in his de Préhistorique Antiquité de l'Homme.

I heartily congratulate you on your work Relics of Primeval Life — which I much enjoy.

Yours sincerely

(Rev^d). D. Gath Whitely
