My dear Sir William

I have much pleasure in sending you herewith 6 copies of your Expositor Paper. The articles will not appear in the Magazine until next year, but as I know you are anxious to have a few in pamphlet form, I send these, and on hearing from you, I will have as many more done as you may like to put into circulation. I think publication should be confined to the Expositor. Copies of the Magazine containing the articles shall be sent to those whose names you have given me, unless you decide to send them the pamphlet after you have seen it. I shall be happy to forward to any address you may send

Hoping this will find you better

With kind regards

Believe me

Yours ever sincerely

M. H. Adder
