Sir J. William Dawson,

My Dear Sir:

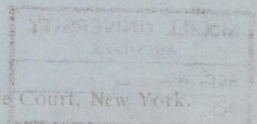

I wish to thank you most heartily for the gracious message which you sent to the young men of North America, and I appreciate the way you speak as one who has behind him so much of life, and I may say so much of useful life. I enclose a typewritten copy of your letter, which will go in just as it is written here. If there are any corrections to be made at this time, kindly make them and send direct to F. M. Barton, Association Building, Cleveland, O., where the paper is published. I am afraid it will be impossible to send you proof for the first part of the paper goes to press in a few days.

Praying that God may spare your life for usefulness, and thanking you for the message, and as well for the little booklet, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Comptroller Alexander Peterson was much pleased with this message
