Sir J. H. Dawson C. M. G. &c
Dear Sir.

My daughter has reminded me of my neglect of duty by asking if I had acknowledged the receipt of your booklet on "The Isle of Patmos."

It is not that I did not appreciate your kindness, that I made no acknowledgment of it; but having neglected the matter at

The time it entirely occup-ed my attention.

I read the pamphlet with deepest interest as I do everything coming from your pen that falls under my notice. Many a year ago I read your Academic Geology, which then greatly interested me, and many a time since have I enjoyed the products of your pen.

Your contributions to Biblical questions, as well as scientific, have been of very great value to the Church; and one feels sorry that so able a defender of the "faith once delivered to the saints," must soon lay aside his powerful pen.

Thanking you for the gift of your booklet, tho' the acknowledgment is very tardy, and trusting that the gloaming of your useful life may be very enjoyable I am

Yours very truly
A. Falconer
