

University of Toronto,
Toronto - March 13th/99

Dear and Honoured Sir:—

I write to you as the Editor of the "Canadian College Missionary" to express my thanks to you for your helpful article. We are pleased to acknowledge our indebtedness to you, and to express the pleasure it gives us to know of your interest in our Missionary endeavor in India and among Canadian Students.

We appreciate the article from you at the present time the more because we know of your poor health, and therefore know that it could not have been written without an effort.

For myself personally I for the Board of the C.C.M., may I express the hope that the Father who has been your comfort throughout your long and arduous life, may be your joy and strength while life may last.

With sincerest wishes for your continued usefulness in the cause of Christ,

I am,

Yours most sincerely,
Albert H. Abbott

... effort.
I have myself personally of the C.M.M. may I refer to the fact that
last.

With sincere wishes for
in the cause of Christ,

Yours most sincerely,
Albert Stubbart
