24th October - 1899.

Dear Sir Tom Dawson,

Much wonderful delay conveying it to you my best thanks for the real pleasure with which I read your letter to Miss Bond, repeated by him at the Bible Society meeting, held at the Bible Society House, Oct 5th, and published in the Montreal Witness Oct 21st.
I was particularly pleased with your fearless and faithful enunciation of the earnest of of the pains long predicted been coming, a great and solemn truth, of a awakening character, but one of fear, in which the Church in general is fast asleep.

Many thanks to yourself for your recent and well timed Proclamations.

Yours Respectfully
H. Underdan
