Dear Sir William

When I came here a few days ago for a weeks visit I saw upon the drawing room table your book "Egypt & Syria" My sister
had appropriated it & I never heard of its arrival, which with accounts for your receiving no acknowledgment.
- I regret - please accept now my

184
best thanks for your kind remembrance
of me, I am soon
going to St Leonard's & then I shall have time to read it.

I conclude you were able to carry out
your long desired
wish to visit the Holy Land & much
I should like to hear about it.

When you & Lady D^{...} were last in England I was so ill, I could not see any one, I have come through deep waters, but through the Lord's great goodness I am better now than I ever expected to be again as that if you return, which I hear is likely, I hope you will pay me a short visit in my country home, where I can at least show you some pretty

Country! I trust you
of yours are well, & enjoying much of the light of His Presence which makes up for the trials & sorrows
I am below. With very best wishes

Believe me

y^r. very sincerely

Ellen Cojan

I give you my address.
