

I have as promised sent 200 copies of the Report in two separate lots. I have prepared and have also sent 200 copies of the Report of the Committee to the Secretary of the Board. I trust they will arrive safely and will be satisfactory.
I shall send in a few days a list of copies prepared for him & I would hope, please be, so that you may not duplicate them.

I now send herewith the Account of Expenses. I may say that I consider the charge of printing very low and that Mr. Harcourt's charge is I think fair as he has had to get his expenses and the paper he was not anticipated in his expense

These were seen to be cream the upper end of the S. end of the sixth head & in part of the head shall give in part
