Mr A Gordon has been brought up with a practical knowledge of Agriculture and farming in all its details; also the breeding and management of Stock.

During the last six years he has been employed partly in the management of a farm and in carrying out Estate improvements, also partly in Office work in connection with a Flax Manufacturing Concern on the property on which he was engaged -

I have the greatest pleasure in stating that I consider him eminently qualified for the office of Estate or farm Manager, and perfectly trustworthy
