Miss Mercer,
11 Amherst Place

Tuesday Ev'g

Dear Margaret

I have seen your father. He is kind and reasonable as usual, but says we must manage every thing ourselves, without asking any conception of your mother; and thinks the sooner the better. He does ^{not} think that he will object to give me his name & be clerk.

I go to Glasgow in the Morning. If the ship be at Glasgow, I may return early in the day; if at Greenock not till evening. I will let you know immediately on my arrival.

Do not dear Margaret disturb yourself with evil forebodings. Try to comfort your mother, and pray for her; she needs more light in this matter.
Say our troubles to your God too;
he is the only one refuge, and knows our anxieties and fears better than we ourselves. I wish we could just trust in him as we ought. May be guard you from all harm

Will see you again.

Sincerely Yours
William
