Dear William

A line to acknowledge with deep gratitude your kind Malcolm letter received after I had written. As before the letter mailed in Montreal & that afterwards sent from Murray Bay arrived together. I was greatly relieved to have you had this found letters from me. I have written to you very much since you left. I am packed up for a move from here & scribble a few lines while waiting for a package to carry my trunk to the station. The day is beautiful & calm.
I will attend to all the directions you have given me. Thank Anne for her letter to me also William, Rankin & Eva. With much love to each of them

Mrs. Pimmose has been here for two days. One of those was rainy & she very kindly helped me to finish putting all P.L. things in good order. I have the satisfaction of leaving him I think well provided for next winter. I am sure he has enjoyed his stay here. As his favorite Eliza Kemp is coming over for the few remaining days he will not so much miss me. I hope

Edinburgh Monday 26

We are having a very quiet forenoon packing. Mrs. Bell & the girls being gone.
I am almost finished. I expect to have a quiet day tomorrow. I start fresh on Saturday. Have the Admirals given me for a good present. I put it in the trunk because I will have it. I do not have gratitude I feel for such attention.

George & I am as coming over on Saturday night very goodby to me and the ladies. I wish you may be blessed with a happy reunion. Goodby. I wish best William. Yours own Madge
