Dear Mr
my own wife
Mary Ann

Dear William

This unnatural life passes on in a phusous dreamy way. Rankine has been staying with Mr. Campbell family since Monday, so Eva & I eat, work, read & go out to be in such monotonous round that yesterday after serious calculation we believed the day to be Thursday. I have on one occasion spoken in to Mrs. Murray & Thompson — Ca & twice said how do you do you do to Mrs. Clay. The Hotel mo has many more visitors but is up they are either Americans or The Canadians unknown to me is by rights. Everything we get W at table is good except the fio strawberries. They have always #2 been all kept & mushed. 7 The weather is charming 101 with the exception of yesterday I a dark, rainy with thunders. 101 in the evening. This morning cold. so that neither one nor I had courage to get up to bathe before breakfast, the only time the tide suits. It is now bright & warm again.

We are invited to be to Mr Moffatt's tonight. Mr Campbell & Lamm go off tomorrow to their fishing & Rankine returns here.
He has been boating with Lamm & playing croquet every evening with Mr C. Mr. Lamy &c.

I am told that Mr. Thompson - Mr Cook's son-in-law - wishes to Sell his Cottage — — The second from the Hotel in the row of four. The price £300. very moderate don't you think?

Last evening I received your letter of Tuesday - "Lisieu House" & paper.
Also a telegram on Tuesday, for all accept sincere thanks. I hope to get George's letter tonight. Then I shall probably have something to write about. I fear the heat continues unabated at Montreal. I ought to write to Anne. Tell her flattering is a lazy sleepy process. That two notes in one day is too fatiguing I can only send my love to her & to William. My regards to Mary Hunt. Believe
