

had time even to peep into my bag yet. Eve has lain down after our walk & sat with the promise of the treat of watching it when I am down with to go early. That

W. E. Clara Haultain & myself started about 5-30. for a walk a short way up the Eastern end of the Mountain where we enjoyed a little Coal hay & a beautiful sunset. returning to a late tea we found we found that G's barge had arrived in the our absence.
Today it rains & being somewhat cooler I took the opportunity of going to town to ask for Miss Seddon she has been dangerously ill with something like hem stroke. I found her out of danger. I called at Mariner's to look at G's Chair. I will go tomorrow if Coal to get a Cow. I have not
