Friday

This morning I have been looking through the British colonies. The exhibits are wonderful & most instructive.
If there is any thing that keeps me from enjoying it to the full, it is that you can't all see it. Almost every country exhibits implements, bones, skulls &c of the aborigines or old inhabitants. Egypt, all the australian colonies, Hawaii &c. &c. This morning, among innumerable other things, I saw a stuffed vampire bat & bones & leg & back & skull of moa bird, from Australia.
Large numbers of the most beautiful possum skins &c &c. There is an immense no.
of people on the grounds & yet there is always room to move about freely
