This is the most interesting of the buildings I have yet visited, except perhaps the art-gallery which part of which we looked over yesterday. The most wonderful displays from all the different departments of the government. This is a half price day & the place is very full of people. It is very curious however that only here & there, where there is anything specially interesting, there is a crowd. I can live here considerably cheaper than I expected. Mr Reynolds only charges me 50^{cts} a night (as long as I room with Mr Weston), & we go to a very nice temperance restaurant near the grounds, where you can get a good meal for 20 or 30 cts. Have seen nothing as yet but Exhibition. May receive no post card tomorrow as it is Sunday.
