Wednesday Morning

Dear Margaret,

Last evening I finished my letter for home; saw your father, and requested him to take my message to your mother, and then finished reading Mr. Beverley's pamphlet and comparing it as far as I could with scripture. If we could take another walk to-morrow, I will tell you what I think of his views, or rather what I think the bill says of them

If you can come I will wait as long at Boston
st, at the same hour.
If I can manage to finish a piece of work I have to do at the College, I think I will take a run out to see Mrs Bell this afternoon

Yours ever
William
