

Montreal

Aug. 2nd 1880

Dear Dr. Dawson,

After a very comfortable journey we arrived here safely at six o'clock yesterday morning.

Anna seemed rather refreshed than fatigued by her travels and I am very thankful for it as I made the journey up on her account.

I neglected to ask you before leaving whether I should send you a cheque for rent or deposit the amount in the bank here for you. Please let me know which would suit you best.

We found everything in good order here as Edward had been at work for several days about the garden. To-day he is endeavouring to make a place for my ferns, all of which seem to be in good condition. Yesterday it was cool and pleasant but to-day hot and sultry. Probably there will be thunder showers before the day is over.

I cannot write more at present as that man Fote from Philadelphia has been here for two hours, and upset all my plans for the day.

With kindest regards to Mrs Weston

Believe me

Yours very sincerely
R. W. Hamilton.

P. S. Mr. Baynes leaves for Murray Bay this evening.
