April 29th 92.

Dear Father,

Still in

Winnipeg, as you see.
I still unable to get west on account of floods, "washout" etc

Had intended to leave last Monday to return for supplies etc - which I trust are now en route, but was prevented: shall now
get off next week probably. Everything

2/ has been disarranged by the ravages of the water, which was due to the unusually mild weather following
unusual snow storms
a few weeks ago.

I rec^d quite a budget of letters yesterday from Mother, Annad, Yourself which I must answer in due course at present many thanks for them.
Very kind regards
to George & best wishes for a pleasant &
prosperous voyage -
Love to Eva & to all
There is nothing new

Here except a big fire night before last which destroyed one of finest & most substantial buildings in the city.

Otherwise things generally are very quiet.

Your affec. son
Rambert.
