July 12

Dear Mr William

Thanks for your "Card" from Chandice. I hope the remainder of your journey was accomplished in comfort.
The first part must have been unbearably hot. It frustrated long one here. Yesterday was perfect. Today is cold but beautifully high.

The heat of Tuesday has probably been the cause of a severe ^{attack} illness.
Mrs Carpenter is still suffering from it. She is better but it has been a sharp illness & she looks weaker & older than I ever before saw her.

I had hoped to have met. might from Eva about documents, but it will be more satisfactory to have all other arrangements after you have talked them over together.

I have written a "Card" to William P. O. Searants. Is he likely to call there? or what address did he have. Am glad to have heard again from P. altho' he too finds human nature a troublesome subject.

Our Searants are going to a picnic this afternoon so I am going over to ^{Hotel} rent a Carriage, as the easiest way of caring for the Children during their absence. Ask Eva please to bring with her 6 lemons per Mrs. C. We did not know what to do with those you bought & only yesterday made 4 into a Connection for hats. as we thought Mrs. C. had plenty She got the two of yours did do has enough for some time Livingly 1002 Insurance
