My dear Father,

I had already seen the announcement in newspaper clipping inserted in yours received the other day. Mr Cornell has just started for the Region & may be able to hear something about the bones, though doubtless the story is much exaggerated

I am not quite certain today as to my date of leaving, & must wait the arrival of some plates & instruments from England.
 If they are known, about May 10th. I feel the felicity of being again at Port. Home last Wednesday, a small & select party at which
 Gen. & Mrs Howard & Dr & Mrs Hunt were the only outsiders besides myself. I suppose I am are very busy about Convocation Matters just now, but hope you may have got over all the trouble before end of week

Yours very truly
