Dear Father,

We arrived here this morning after a protracted journey, have been pretty busy all day in preparations & stopping & leave tomorrow morning for Brandon, where furs supplies &c have to be procured & shipped for the end of the track. Have seen Runkine, who seems very well & evidently comfortable, & Rob. has handed over his property which came up safely.
The season is rather backward

North just as far advanced as at Ottawa, & times are somewhat dull in a business way they say, locally fine.
