Dearest papa,

Having received this charming post card, I hasten to enclose it, lest the lack of such interesting information should cause the failure of the British Ass - In reading the list of subscribers to your testimonial I was amused to see of "honorable able women not a few", & proves you to have been a true knight as regards your devotion to the fair sex - Prof Hogg is back again - & Mr Penhallow turned up this morning, looking better than when last here, & shall call upon Mrs New. to morrow - I hope to be able to recommend her to the friends in Montreal & to report favourably of her to you & mother -

I will leave tomorrow to our great regret - but I have plenty to do - having not yet got my own mansion finished its usual time, & to get the bride's presents suitably disposed & have adorned, with seeking for a new cook will keep me occupied next week -

Bernard had paid your cab men, so they are not taking measures to have you met on the other side by detectives - you seem to have pleasant passengers, I though the voyage has begun in mist & rain I hope the middle & end may be all sunshine -

Will you mention to another that Mrs Willie McLennan called at the College yesterday inquiring for Miss Dawson & expressed great regret that no one was there to receive her apologies for being so long in calling -

We have had one Vast Carol from "the happy pair" & having made that effort they never lapsed into silence though I have had daily occasion to send letters, papers, cards etc after them - I have sent a block of modeling cake to Kaukine in a tin decorated box, knowing his love for gadgets, & various small pieces to deserving parties, as to Newilton & Kierbert - & Mrs Sitwell St. Johns - Papers have also been distributed, & the marriage packet of cards sent off, & I think the world & his wife must be fully acquainted the fact that William can be no longer described as bachelor.

Every one has some good word or wish for you & they smile upon me more kindly than ever, feeling for my loss. I begin to feel about 20 times a day that you are away - & that the frequent appeals to the old home are for the present impossible still I am very glad that the long holiday has begun & hope that it will be unimpeded happens all through.

The weather here has been positively cold, but now seems inclined to be more clement.
I never gave mamma the receipts for her money for notes debts - etc. - I suppose it is no use sending them over, we must agree to spend all the $10.00, & the sum she wanted spent on our house, we hold over till another year - as we do get to no beautifying of the outside this year - I think we must make the effort to have the upstairs finished.

during the winter, as it will ~~not~~ ^{surely} ~~will~~ ^{increase} the value of the house as well as its usefulness for ourselves.

If I find any further news I will add tomorrow. I feel is out tonight so I took the quiet time to write to you —

With love to all —

Affectionately

Anna —

Thank you for her
welcome V.C. }
