Your postals of Saturday rec^d 52. Torrington St.

This morning I was glad to learn that your journey & change of climate has not had any injurious effect; am now comfortably lodged here & consider myself fortunate in having secured such good quarters without any hunting on my own acct. Have seen Ashworth at Bank; lunched with Pelham who has taken to himself a wife since his visit to Canada & who desired to be very kindly remembered; and have called on Galt; beside visiting Zoo, stores, calling at C. P. R. & Canadian offices. so that you will see my time has not been squandered. We are to have a paper from L. Lorne at the R. Colonial Instit. on the 11th on "Our relations to Canada & the
