Dear Father,

I saw your communication in the Herald & thought it must be due to you before I received your vote. In today's Herald I observe an embittered rejoinder, but in regard to publishing more letters think it is scarcely worth while going to the trouble, as every one must see, that the attacks are prompted by personal feeling & interest. I do not think it is likely that the Herald will again go out on the war path editorially on the subject, as Dr S. when in Montreal last spent some time with Mr Van Horne & when the Herald attacks came up he I believe said that he would tell the editor to discontinue them.

The paper is largely a "Sensational" one. This of course is private.

I hope to be in Montreal next Sunday if nothing unforeseen occurs.

Mr Weston I believe sent the slide from St. Clare down yesterday by mail
Yours
G. M. D.
