Dear Sir William

Thank you for your two letters. Perhaps it would be better for me to make a gift of £500 to you to add to what you propose to settle on Eva. My father would not object to my withdrawing this much from the joint. I can either have a credit draft sent to you, or bring it out with me. Your receipt to me & entry in your books would be clear proof of the transaction

Should it ever be needed.

I did think of making a settlement of the furniture on Eva, but this so often leads to trouble in the event of one wishing to make a change even in a single article, that I decided not to do so. I trust that your health is not suffering from all this extra College work & that I shall find you all quite well at the end of this month. Believe me Sir

Yours sincerely
Hope J. Atkin
