

Ottawa. 14 Mar: 94

My dear Father,

I am much obliged for the cutting you sent me, which I have read with much interest.

On the train coming up
I met Dr. Mackay of Toronto.
He tells me he has read all your books he could get, and looks eagerly for everything that comes from your pen.
He finds your views & explanations very helpful.

I enclose Lord Kelvin's letter which I sh^d have returned before. Yours affectionate son

William
