My dear Father,

I am very much obliged by your kind gift of a copy of the Duke's angulus book which reached me by post the other day. I have just been reading a very favourable notice of it in one of the reviews. I shall look into it with interest.

Yesterday & today have been magnificent weather here & I hope you have experienced the same & have been able to Enjoy it. All we want here is a little rain. The lawn in front of the buildings is bare & slowly growing green, but it has been badly winter killed for lack of snow in the late autumn & unless rain comes will be some time in gaining its usual fine appearance.

I hope to be able to send you a copy of the Survey Report for 1898 in a few days. It is now printed, but has not yet become public, not having been laid on the table of the house.
 You will I hope find it of some interest, as giving a Review of the work of the past year.

When Anna hears news of Clara's voyage, & how she enjoyed it, I shall be glad to be informed of all particulars.

Mother's life is well & trying to take care of herself amidst the many temptations to do more than her strength will admit. I wish she had been able to stay a little longer when here lately.

Yours
George
