My dear Letter,

I find that I am expected to go to Kingston to be present on the occasion of the renewal of the degree of which I spoke to you. I am leaving tonight with hope to be back here on ~~Thursday~~
~~Friday~~ ^{Friday} morning. This Easter spoils my prospects of getting down to Montreal this week, but I shall be again next week.

I trust that your conversation will be off & cheerfully tomorrow, & that you will then decide & take a few days of rest which I think you owe to yourself.

Yours
G. C.
