Montreal - Saturday
March

Dear Mr. William

I received your kind letter of Thursday - yesterday I as Rankine will already have intimations to you. I have consented to extend my visit till Wednesday night not very much longer than I had first, & this time likely to be adhered to. Janie will not accompany me, but if all is well - will pay us a visit in Spring or early summer on her way to England. Where, as I daresay you heard, Mr & Mrs Wilson & she intend to go next summer.

The weather here has, for the greater part of this week, been foggy with occasional rain, & very humid. The sun is out to brighten the landscape & show to perfection the beautiful grasses, clumps & groves of which are to be seen in whichever direction you go. I continue to enjoy

My stay here very much.
 I should have been quite as well pleased if I had had more of a quiet home life with the Wilsons, but they (as I in similar circumstances would be apt to think) consider much of my happiness consists in seeing people so if we are not out they generally have some people in. but details will be better told in words.
 A Miss Pine has been extremely kind in driving me out & at this moment I am hurrying to get ready as she is to call for me at half past ten to take me to see an invalid lady &c.

The few days that I propose to remain will soon pass D. D. V. I shall again be with my own dear household, all the better for the delightful rest I have enjoyed. altho, when I think of it, somewhat afraid at the thought of resuming household manies.

Please thank George for a kind note received from him. I have not consumed either Anna's or Edw's last letters but they must excuse me as it is only occasionally I can find a convenient opportunity.
Yours lovingly
Margaret
