Father of Mother
My dear will be writing soon to her - Marion does not know a tremendous how she is a letter from you at Regent Street London Oct. 15-1840 to any all - I have not written a letter from you since last Saturday reached London by Railway from Woolwich and arrived at Regent Street Marion is much better than when I was there, she has now far from being a skeleton, I yesterday received from Mr. Schomberg a letter, with a copy of the Regent Street called on Dr. on Monday last, and gave the letter to the Principal Secy, has sent me from Exeter. I breakfasted with him on Sunday; in the morning, he asked me to come to his lecture at St. George's Hospital, after which, he took me to Golden Square to see some of his collection. - I have to attend his lecture, the winter from which, much benefit may be reaped - Yours affectionately
M. P. M. M. M.

Give my grateful thanks to Mr & Mrs Clegg, for their goodness in sending me the letter; they may expect to hear from me soon. Dr L. was most particular in his enquiries about his sister, & how Mr C. was succeeding in business &c.

I am by his advice to take a situation, as Assistant, for a short time, as he says, "it is impossible for me to get on, unless, I have seen how a practice is conducted. He will recommend me, thro' any such opening present itself to him -

I am also attending Mr Ferguson's lectures at Kings College, occasionally. I have been with him to one operation, and will again see another tomorrow. I have called on Mr St John at the office Broadgate Str, he now sports an attempt at a moustache, which makes him look somewhat fierce.

I will see him some time soon, and will learn what were the sports between J. Forrest &c -

I have not ~~collected~~^{visited} any of the Bysons - Mr Walker intends going to Brighton until Christmas, so that Harriet & I will be housekeepers, we only see James at night - he comes home to dinner, but it's just swallow & then he is off - I thought I had seen Mrs Coylegan yesterday, but I was mistaken, however, the person was very like, what Maggie Russell used to be - We are intend going to the Concerts at Dover some night soon, of which Musard is conductor, they are ~~the~~ most splendid, upwards of 50 performers -

I am hard at work during the day with my books, I have commenced Russels Modern Europe & Keiths signs the Times - James has got an excellent library and means to use it - I Miss Bryson well, and as the time get fixed, you will no doubt give me all the news, at our acquaintance in Edm^d -

Mr Thomson the Surgeon of Roxburgh Street is to write me occasionally so that I will hear what the Doctors are doing -

Remember me affectionately to all the good folks in Gilmour Place, also to your
