her bed. I called to see her last night and she had on a shiver. I hope she may be relieved when it comes off. Mrs. G. is at present a little better. She is often very poorly now, she hasnt been out for two years longer than the garden. She is a most devoted Christian. I think there is always talk of Mr Haley's marriage but I dont know about it I am sure. I cannot recollect of any thing more at present that would interest you. Altho' I am
