off the piece as she could not get any remnants the proper width. Mr. Crave arrived ^{here} on Saturday evening after Jane had posted her letter to you, he promised to call again on his return from London.

I had not the pleasure of seeing Mr. C. but Jane thinks him a nice frank young man.

We are certainly much indebted to you for the seeds and the trouble you must have had in collecting them. Be so good as thank Miss Dawson in our name for the canoe, had it been somewhat bigger you might have been surprised some day by an arrival across the ferry.

The children were and are still quite delighted with their books, - they had them all read before next night, - having some extra time on Sabbath.

Jessie has sent I. Cosmo a soft ball, and Christina a pair of mitts for yourself. I enclose a little pamphlet which has just come out, you know the writer, and I think you will read it with interest. I had almost forgot to thank you for the ten sermons, Jane read them carefully and think a great deal of them, - I have not yet managed to read them.

The following is a list of the articles & prices

Mohair Dress	-----	£ + . 16. 6
Diaper, 4 yards		-----, 5. 4
Buttons and Gimp	-----	-----, 3. 6
Horn Spoon	-----	----- 6
		1, 5, 10

There is really nothing else that I remember to mention at this time. The weather is rather good, although we have had some very tempestuous weather lately. Christmas is full of apologies about the quilts, they were intended for Mamma and are rather imperfect.

With kind regards to Mr Dawson and remem-brances to all other friends I remain Yours affectionately
