Sept 25

Dearest Margant

I write a few lines this mornin in hope that they may

reach you before my next journey Digh. I leave

Zurmonth this mornin, for Clare, though I expect to stay all night at Beavers river only

12 miles or so from this

I had a meeting

here day before yesterday

It was pretty well attended and a discussion got up & kept on a moment. I gave a lecture last evening of a very large audience also I hope were pleased and interested

The people here have been exceedingly kind and attentive and altogether I shall leave with a favourable impression of Vermont

What is certainly the only certainly true that I have met with that approaches Peter
in the intelligence
and divine quality
of its people.

I am quite well
My hard work in speaking does me
no harm and my
health is very good.
John also is well

From this time
I have the pleasure

of knowing that my face is turned toward you, and that I am daily however
slowly approaching
my own loved home

I am dear Margaret
Your ever loving
William
