

Thursday Evg, Oct 26.

Joseph Margaret,

The first thing I

heard on getting home

from the steamboat was that our fudge's chair and

pair of stockings and a pair of boots had been found

of course there was no help though I was very much about the things

Amos quite contented

though she brings a little time she has to me as for the thought was the only one she gets on very

Friday Jan 25

well with Mary. Last night she was a little fretful when she waked seeming to miss her mamma but soon went to sleep and slept well till morning when she awaked quite cheerful. The usual continues fair and to day is quite strong and squally with showers of sleet and snow, sometimes it looks quite windy. Hope that day you are far out to sea, running at a great rate. My one of course

Statute of the University of Cambridge
ACC. NO. 5612 PP. 01. 00A 1874
I congratulate you on the fine and may God grant that it carry you well over the Atlantic and that you may have a safe

and happy voyage.

Anna is quite cheerful to day and we
we could know that she

misses either you or George. I feel a little lonely but am very busy

to have not much time
to feel so.

With earnest prayers
and good wishes for mamma and George, I give you Yours affectionately
William

MCGILL UNIVERSITY
 ARCHIVES
 ACC. NO. 976/27
 REF. # 14

I am very glad to hear that you are well and
 hope you will continue to improve. I have not heard from you for some time and am sorry to hear that you are still in the hospital.
 I hope you will be able to return home soon. I will write to you again when I have more news.

I feel very much better but am
 still in the hospital. I hope to be home soon.
 I will write
 to you again
 when I have more news.

Mrs. W. Adams
 Mrs. J. Lee
 Mrs. G. Baker

