Dear Mama

after we started from Quebec we next came to Gaspé and I thought the high cliffs looked verry beautiful from the water.

We did not see those beautiful terraces which grandpapa saw when he was coming up the river St^t Lawrence he said he thought^t that we either passed it in the ^{ght.} ni, ore. kept to far to the other side.

the island that was cut through by the water which Grandpa was talking about to you was verry grand it has perpendicular sides and here and their their as some shelf of the rock their is a little tufts of grass and their are thousands of gals.

Give my love to papa. Jessy. ^{am} Well, and anna.

George M. Dawson.

PS we had Fresh Salmon 3 times every day after we reached Gaspé, I.D.
