Dear Nana

I was just going to forget to write at all, and now when I remember there is scarcely any time before the boat goes. This is the last letter I will send from North Berwick as we are going back to Musselborough tomorrow (Thursday) evening, and very likely papa will be

there the same day,
at anyrate the day after. We meant to have a sail to the Bass Rock this afternoon, but when we all
went down to the pier the boatman
said it was too windy. I have had to

a letter from papa
and Anna, announcing their safe
arrival in London
and I suppose
you will have one
from them the same
post that this will arrive. I am quite well, and
so are all your friends here. I would not ~~write~~ send you

such a scrawl
as this but that papa made me promise to write by every post. My love
to all at home,
I am yours
affectionately
George

P.S. I received the two newspapers
that you sent last
week.
