Dear Mrs Dawson

Having heard of you through our dear friend Captain Lytleton and also from Mrs. Charleston I venture to write a few lines to ask if Dr. Dawson & you w^d be interested in hearing Lord Radstock give an address in our neighbour Mr. Thwaitland's house. 39. Phillimore Gardens Kensington - tomorrow

Tuesday afternoon at 3.0 P.M.

Mr. Hattland asked us to invite some friends to attend & I feel sure you would like to hear the Lord's He is one whom God has greatly blessed in London elsewhere. Captain Lytton mentioned that you wished to visit the houses, & though I feel very diffident about Taking anyone, still Capt. Lyttleton urged me so much that I felt it wd be wrong to refuse - If you sh^d be able to go, please do not expect anything, but the very simplest work, in a very rough place -

Sh^d you be able to go to Mr. Huntland's tomorrow we might arrange to meet somewhere there - If you sh^d be unable to go to the meeting tomorrow, and wish to go to the harrier this week I c^d meet you in the Ladies-dressing-room Farringdon?

Metropolitan Station at 11-45 either on Wednesday or Thursday morning - or sh^d you prefer joining me here, I leave home at 11-00.
Mama w^d be very glad if you w^d return to lunch here afterwards -

Believe me

Yours in Jesus

J. C. Parson.

Please let me hear from you as soon as convenient.
