My dear Mr. Darrow

I hope you have not thought me quite faithless with regard to the Photographs. I duly went to be taken and was taken but owing to my being gone without a right attention to effect in dress the portrait was not at all satisfactory and I requested to be Photographed again. This was concented to and you shall very shortly have the benefit — such as it is — of the result. The Photo-is a good one; the dress is what I happened to have. If you should consider the attitude or smile affected blame the Photograph not me; for I looked and sat as he bid me. I cannot think I ever figure well in these pictures. I send you my last copy of one of the old Daguerre types I have of Mr. Walker. no one at present is better entitled to it than yourself.

I hope you are all well.
Give my kindest Compliments to Dr. Davison. I had not enough fees to hang his lecture on to understand it but I am sure he is a satisfactory and fluent lecturer with a sweet voice. You will shortly hear from me again so I will leave off with kind wishes to your dear Son and Mr. G. and his Bell and your other sisters! Believe me

My dear Mr. Dawson,

Your affectionate old friend
M. H. Carter
