My dear Mr. Dawson,

It seems an unnecessary formality to send separate notes, as you already know that Mr. Harrington and myself and our daughter Maria are expecting to go down on Tuesday. If dear Mary wrote a pencil note it would certainly be a sincere one. I am thinking much of your anxiety and fatigue and wish we could help you; but in due your experienced generalship I am sure every thing will go on smoothly.

Many thanks for suggesting Laura's visit - it gave Mary so much pleasure. With love to Anna from all and respects to Dr Dawson.

Believe me dear Mrs
Dawson
Yours affectionately,
Laura Harrington.
