

Great pleasure to us until we have arranged.

My very dear Mrs. Dawson.

I am sure that you & your good husband would feel repaid
for your trouble in coming to see us away
last evening, did you know the great

My dear husband
Join with me in much love to yourself & Dr Dawson also
to Dr & Mrs Harrington
Eva, & the baby.

We hope you will have good tidings
from your good sons.
It is a real regret to us that we could not have Mr Eva with us,
but I know you are sure it would have been a pleasure you gave us,

at the same time how much joy is mingled
in these partings from those we love.

Your flowers look
lovely this morning,
so far, I have been able to take good care of them, and
my dear husband
Bill / he says / care for them when I am unable. How much love I see in every flower, the bird

thought that dictated the gift, will live in memory.

The vibration from
the screw is so great,
I find it difficult
to write.
