

My very dear friend,
I was in every kind remembrance to your good husband,
we trust, he is greatly regretted by the church except much love for yourself which

reminds me
of Mrs. P. Redpath
1879
Acc. 1377
Your loving friend,
Grace Redpath
Love to Mr. Eva.

It was a great pleasure to see your hand writing.
How very kind of you to send me such a long note, which I have read & re-read with much pleasure.
You did not speak of self, but Mrs. Carpenter said in a note, I received from her, some time since, that you were better. We were sorry to learn

That your good husband had been to Quebec twice, & contemplated a third visit; - Is it wise for you to come to town on the 10th Sep.? I hope the Dr: will not allow you, for sometimes, we have very warm weather during that month, pray, for the sakes of many who love you, keep away as long as possible, & get all the strength you require for your many duties during the winter - You must be -

-Remember that you are not so strong as once you were,
& I fear your head trouble may return without great care.
My own experience cautions me to write thus, to one I love much. It is just possible that we may go away for a few days on the 10th. My dear husband has had no rest, so far, since the opening of the Refinery, excepting a few days in New York on business.
-nets.

Our thoughts are very much occupied, about a Training School for Nurses which we hope may be opened this Fall. Miss Kummer has been again to N. York, also to Boston, to see a young Lady we think likely, but we do not wish to say much about it - at present; for reasons I will explain again.

Thank you for your very kind wish for us to visit you, it - would be a great pleasure to my dear husband & myself, but it - cannot be,
for more reasons than one.

Mr. Hooper's name has never been named to us by the friends at "The Cottage" we have acquitted some phases in the affair, but we maintain silence! What you write to me, is sacred.

How good of you to call the group of trees we witnessed the planting of, our "memorial trees" we accept, and acknowledge the true friendship that prompted the thought.
May our spiritual growth far exceed that of our "memorial trees". How precious is that great love, which draws us nearer, & nearer to Christ; teaching us that self, is nothing, and that our will, in all things must be lost in His, what sweet grace is ours if thus we yield ourselves to them -

Last Saturday at 5 P.M. we took train, to visit Judge & Mrs Day, we were glad to find them so comfortably settled. They both look better for the change -

Will you give our love to Miss Carpenter, I hope she will return stronger.

I have a note from my darling Alice by this mail, she is better, but still very weak she has left Ventnor is now ^{at} Colwyn Bay, with my brother & sister. I can leave her in our loving Father's keeping, he knows what is the very best for us -

We have had a great many visitors, & I hope have made some happier & better by the change.

God is very good in allowing us to do any kindness. My dr. spouse
