June 20. 1880

My dear mother,

we are very glad to hear of your safe arrival in Wales by telegraph & hope that you are by this time comfortably settled. Why much has happened here since you left, we are anticipating the opening up tomorrow.
I wrote to Eva last mail saying that as the British Association does not meet till the 25th of August it will probably be but for we to try to leave here by the steamer sailing on the 31st of July. This would bring me to the other side say about the tenth of August being nearly fifteen days before the meeting.

In this time I would try to finish all visits to Scotland &c. &c. & leave for the Continent immediately after the meeting.

Fifteen days is certainly all the time I can spare for that something if I am to have any time on the Continent, & there would therefore be no advantage that I can see in trying to leave

(3)

By the steamer Teppe (July 24th)

In writing to Eva I said that in event of leaving on the 31st I would prefer going right on to Scotland to meet Her, & would not object to go to Loney if the Hoffmans to be there. Let me know what you think about it.

Please also write out & send a little memorandum about the purchases you wish

4 to be made. I have already forgotten half you told me.

William intends leaving tomorrow & should be down shortly after this.

Love to Anna.

Your affectionate son

George
